Futile Attempt at Suicide WHO SAVED HER Taken to Prove Bank Wrecker's Mind Sound.

South Shore Traction Co., His Pet Scheme, Goes Into Receivers' Hands.

From the great improvement shows Robin, the bank wrecker, his attempt at suicide in the Criminal Courts Building yesterday appears to have been discreet, to say the least.

Robin, after a restless night, ate some breakfast to-day, conversed rationally with his siter, Dr. Louise Robinovitch, srome's law partner, and generally footlights after her. Miss Blan was

It was a proceeding friendly to Robin, instituted by Robin's lawyers and business associates

The receivers are Paul T. Brady, who is associated with the Westinghouse interests and was president of the South Shore Traction Company, and Willard V. King. They gave bonds of $15,000 each and were empowered to carry on the business of the South Shore Traction system, the principal operating section is the line across the Queensboro Bridge.
